

International Trade/Development Economics Visiting Speaker Series 2005-2006

During their stays, the visitors generally give two to four 90 minutes talks on their research. The talks are primarily targeted to second-year graduate students, but the faculty is also invited to attend. Graduate students interested in taking the series for credit should be registered into Independent Study 499 under Kiminori Matsuyama for SPRING 2006.

October 10-21      Samuel Kortum (University of Minnesota)
(Talks on October 10, 12, 17, and 19, 2pm-3:30pm, AAH 3204)

November 8-18      Giancarlo Corsetti (European University Institute)
(Talks on November 8, 10, 15, and 17, 2pm-3:30pm, AAH 3204.)

March 7-9, 15-17      Torsten Persson (Stockholm University)
(Talks on March 7, 9, and 16, 9am-11am, AAH3245)

Note: Torsten Persson will give three 120 minutes talks, instead of four 90 minutes talks.

May 8-12      Patrick Francois (University of British Columbia)
(Talks on May 9 and 11, 1:30pm-3pm, AAH3245)
