The Rate of Investment Has Fluctuated Around An Unchanged Level for Forty Years. The Reason for the Fall in the Current Account is that National Saving Began to Fall Around 1980.

\[
\text{National Saving} = \frac{(\text{GDP} - \text{Household Consumption} - \text{Government Purchases})}{\text{GDP}}
\]