

2019 Chicago Area Political and Social Behavior (CAB) Workshop

The thirteenth annual Chicago Area Political and Social Behavior Workshop (CAB) will be held on Friday, May 3rd, 2019, at Northwestern University. The goal of these yearly workshops is to bring together Chicago-area social scientists who share an interest in political and social behavior.

- For information on past CAB conferences, see: <http://faculty.wcas.northwestern.edu/~jnd260/conference.html>.
- Logistical details (i.e., detailed schedule, location, directions) appear below.
- The format is as follows:
  - There will be four paper presentations, with discussion following each presentation.
  - A moderator (for each paper) will keep time and pose a few questions; however, there is no formal discussant, thus the discussion will largely come from the audience.
  - Each presenter will have 40 minutes to present, followed by 20 minutes of discussion (1-hour total).
  - Additionally, we will have a poster session for junior scholars, defined as current advanced graduate students or anyone no more than three years post-Ph.D.
  - The preliminary schedule appears below.
- Papers, if available, will be posted roughly one week in advance on the workshop website.
- A light breakfast, lunch, snacks, and a dinner will be provided. (Dinner is only for those who participate in at least part of the conference.) Part of the purpose of the meeting is to provide scholars from different schools with an opportunity to interact and exchange ideas in an informal setting.
- Each graduate student will be matched with a faculty member from a different university who shares his/her interests. Time will be provided for these pairs to interact (e.g., during break times and lunch).
  - We are grateful to Northwestern's Institute for Policy Research, the Department of Political Science, and the Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences, as well as NORC's AmeriSpeak@Panel who have agreed to sponsor this event on an ongoing basis.
- Next year's meeting is tentatively set for Friday, May 1st, 2020.
